

An Initiative of

KJK⁺CARES

INTRODUCING OUR CORONAVIRUS HOTLINE

We know the current coronavirus pandemic has created a lot of uncertainty for your business, and we're here to help you navigate these challenging times. That's why KJK Cares is launching our Ohio Small Business Coronavirus Hotline.

Our dedicated staff will be available at 1-888-4KJKLAW (1-888-455-5529) on Wednesday, April 1 and Friday, April 3 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., providing complimentary 20-minute consultations on the CARES Act and available SBA loan programs.

CALL 888-4KJKLAW | 9AM - 7PM
WEDNESDAY 4/1 & FRIDAY 4/3

1-888-455-5529

Complimentary
20
MINUTE
consultations

We can help you understand the new Paycheck Protection Program, including:

- Eligibility criteria for the loan program
- The definition of payroll costs under the law
- How forgiveness is calculated and when money has to be spent

CLEVELAND OFFICE

216.696.8700

COLUMBUS OFFICE

614.427.5731

KJK.com

A LAW FIRM BUILT FOR BUSINESS.

No attorney-client relationship is formed by calling KJK's pro-bono hotline. KJK's pro-bono hotline is not an offer to represent you, nor is the pro-bono hotline established to obtain, or attempt to obtain, you or your business as a client. Any information obtained by a caller through the KJK cares initiative or pro-bono hotline is not, nor is it intended to be, legal advice. Therefore, the information should not be relied upon as legal advice. The KJK cares initiative and pro-bono hotline is intended solely to provide legal information related to the various financial relief programs available due to the novel coronavirus pandemic and not for the purposes of consultation to represent you or your business. The KJK cares initiative and pro-bono hotline is not a solicitation and not an attempt by a KJK attorney to engage in an attorney-client relationship. Any and all information given by a KJK attorney through the KJK cares initiative and pro-bono hotline has been diligently researched but is subject to change.